

Ripon Police Department

Youth Police Advisory Committee

Committee Meeting

- Mission: The mission of the Youth Police Advisory Committee (YPAC) is to provide advice to the Chief of Police so that policies, procedures, and programs that the Department implements can best service the citizens and youth in the Ripon community.
- Purpose: The role of the YPAC is to provide the voice and perspective of local youth leaders to guide the efforts of the Department in its policies and programs concerning young people and the community.
- Goal: For like-minded teens from different schools and neighborhoods to come together to develop their leadership skills and provide constructive opinions and advice to the Chief of Police to better guide the direction of Department policies and programs to better serve the youth and community.
- Contact: Chief of Police Ed Ormonde
